Lesson Aim

Main aim: By the end of the lesson, learners will have completed a first-day orientation and will be better able to share personal information and reflect on their goals in the context of a new term. Subsidiary aim: Learners will also have practiced writing for linguistic self-assessment in the context of a reflective prompt.

Lesson Stages

Time	Goal	Procedure	Int
STAGE 1: GREETING AND WELCOME
3 min	To establish a welcoming atmosphere and set a positive tone for the new term	- Greet learners at the door with a warm welcome as they enter. - Introduce yourself briefly and share something positive about the new term. - Ask learners to say their names and one word describing how they feel about starting the term.	T-Ss
STAGE 2: HOLIDAY DISCUSSION AND GOAL-SETTING (THINK-PAIR-SHARE)
18 min	To activate speaking skills, encourage peer interaction, and help learners articulate personal goals for the term ahead	- Think (3 min): Learners individually reflect on their holidays and what they want to achieve this term. Write a few notes. - Pair (7 min): In pairs, learners share their holiday highlights and discuss one main goal for the year. - Share (8 min): Each pair reports their partner's goal to the class. Write key goals on the board for group awareness.	Ss-Ss
STAGE 3: MATERIALS PREPARATION
5 min	To ensure learners know what materials to bring for the course	- Write the required materials list on the board: two notebooks, course books, a pen, a whiteout marker, and a plastic folder. - Explain where each item can be obtained and why each is needed. - Ask learners to make a note of the list. Give them a moment to check in with a partner if anything is unclear.	T-Ss
STAGE 4: DIAGNOSTIC WRITING: 'WHAT I LIKE MOST ABOUT ME'
10 min	To assess learners' current linguistic control and begin the term with a positive, reflective task that builds confidence	- Distribute the A4 writing response sheets. - Write the prompt on the board: 'What I like most about me.' - Explain that this is not graded – it helps the teacher understand their writing strengths. - Give learners 5 minutes to write freely.
